DEDICATION

Diane Ates

In the small space we have here, it is difficult to tell of all the accomplishments of this outstanding teacher. Not only is she an excellent teacher whom the students love, but she is also kind, sympathetic, and helpful to their individual needs. She always exhibits school spirit and supports the school and its students in all that they do. She has given tirelessly of her time both teaching and sponsoring the school newspaper. It is because of these "special" traits that we, the Gators' Prints staff of '81, dedicate this annual to you MRS. DIANE ATES.

It's 8:15 A.M. Do You Know Where Your Teacher Is?

What? Who's hungry?

I'm sooo confused?!

What you talk'n 'bout?

Urban Cowgirl?

I HATE paperwork!

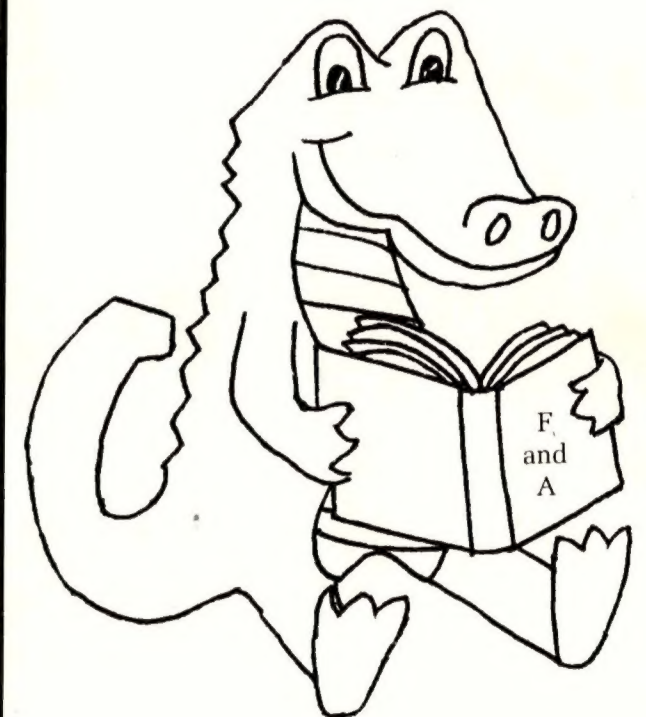

This is a Stick-up!

I wish they'd leave me alone!

It's been a rough day.

STUDENT LIFE IS ...

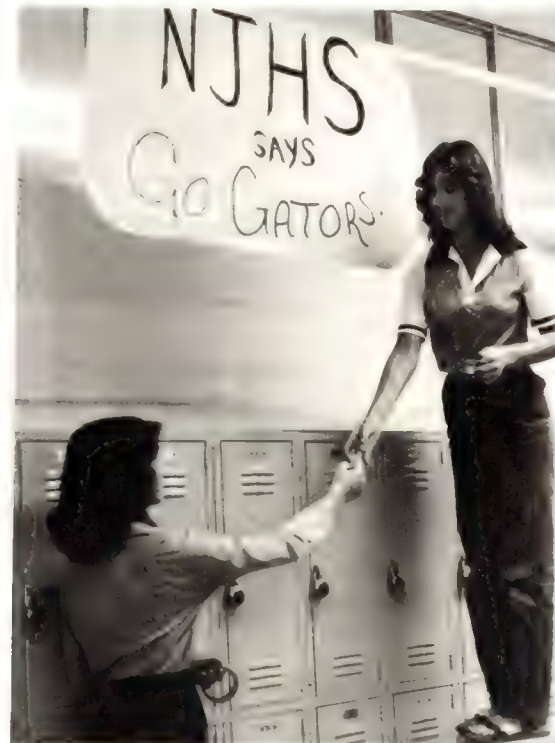

GROUPS

The National Junior Honor Society is made up of 9th graders with "A" and "B" averages. The goal of this group is to uphold the high standards of leadership, scholarship, character, citizenship, and service. Among their projects were a pen sale and a Halloween UNICEF collection.

OFFICERS:
 Pres. Patty Allen
 V.-Pres. Sandy Kloske
 Sec. Deonda McDaniel
 Reporter Stacy Grantland
 SPONSORS: Mrs. S. Smith; Mrs. K. Geenen

OFFICERS:

 Reporter Penny Wise
 SPONSORS: Mr. D. Allen
 Mrs. S. McCormick

STUDENT COUNCIL

Forty students — two representatives from each homeroom — and the officers comprise the membership of this group. Their chief goal this year was to promote better teacher-student relationships.

Their projects this year consisted of the annual candy sale, Homecoming elections, the Faculty Christmas party, the Spring Dance, and Freshman Class Night.

GATORS' PRINTS

7th GRADE

8th GRADE

This year, the annual staff ventured beyond the realm of yearbook making to sponsor and produce the ever popular Possum Queen Contest. Everyone connected with this — staff, participants, and audience greatly enjoyed this effort. Selling refreshments at football games was another fund raising project to make this year's annual bigger and better.

Editor Patty Allen
Asst. Editor Robert Graham

ADVISOR: Mrs. E. Klavon

GATORS' TALE

The Newspaper staff worked throughout the year putting out monthly issues of the school paper which contained a variety of news and pictures about various school activities, clubs, student surveys, and "people in the news."

Editor Steve Wade
Asst. Editor Charle Warren

ADVISOR: Mrs. Diane Ates

SCIENCE CLUB

The membership of this club was made up of students with "C" or better averages and who had a high interest in Science. The Club sponsored the annual Science Fair, and made trips to the Marine Research Lab and the Planetarium.

CONSERVATION

The purpose of this club was to promote environmental awareness. These 8th grade club members participated in several community clean up and beautification projects throughout the year.

SPONSOR: Mr. J. Carlson

OFFICERS:
Pres. Jeni Butterfield
V.-Pres. Leila Easmiel

S.L.A.M.

Student Library Assistants of Mississippi was made up of students who worked in the library during their study periods. They assisted in checking out books, helping students locate books, and replacing books on shelves.

SELECT CHORUS

The Select Chorus was made up of those students highly interested in music and singing while the Special Chorus was made up of those students with special abilities and who auditioned. Both groups provided entertainment at PTA, the Possum Queen Contest, and the Christmas Program. They also put on programs at the local elementary schools.

DIRECTOR:

Mrs. S. McCormick

SPECIAL CHORUS

GATORS' FEET

The students in this club were selected because of their interest in running and having a good qualifying time in a mile run. Throughout the year, they participated in running events along the Gulf Coast. Many won several trophies and/or ribbons for their achievements in running events.

SPONSORS: Coach Williams
Coach Wainwright

BEGINNER BAND

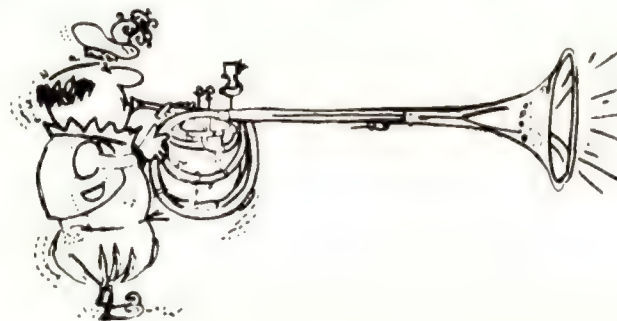

Students in this band learned the fundamentals of music and how to play their individual instruments. They participated in the Christmas and Spring Concerts and in band contests in the Gulf Coast area.

DIRECTOR:
Ms. J. Davidson

Second-year band students made up this group of musicians. The Jr. Varsity Band played with the Varsity Band at pep rallies, football games and the Christmas and Spring Concerts. They also participated in solo and group competitions along the Gulf Coast.

OFFICE MONITORS

The Office Monitors are among the best liked people at school. Why? They get students for check-outs! They also pick up and check absentee slips, file, and put mail in teachers' boxes.

To be selected for this important job, one must have good grades, be a good citizen, loyal to the school, and business like.

GUIDANCE MONITORS

These 8th and 9th grade students aid the Counselors by delivering messages to teachers, conducting new students, to their classes, getting assignments for absent students and various other errands and jobs.

ADVISOR: Mrs. A. Miller

JR. HISTORICAL SOCIETY

This club was made up of 7th and 8th graders who had at least a "B" average in Social Studies. Members of the club worked on an article about the history of Gautier which was printed in the school newspaper. Another of their projects was a sweetheart sockhop. Money from the dance was used to take a field trip in the spring.

FRESHMAN CHEERLEADERS

This year the cheerleaders and mascots did a lot of new stunts and cheers which they learned at camp last summer. At camp, they received a superior rating for their cheerleading ability.

The cheerleaders and mascots performed cheers, stunts, and skits during pep rallies. They also performed during the halftime of football and basketball games.

Thanks, girls, for promoting spirit at the games, as well as at school.

Band-Chorus Present Programs

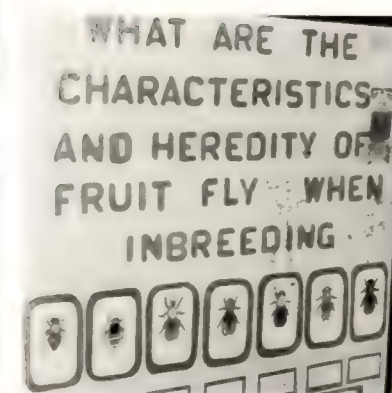

The Chorus Christmas Program was delightful. It included a skit, "Santa's Workshop," with Christmas songs from around the world.

The Varsity and Jr. Varsity Bands teamed up to present their Christmas music. The Beginner Band also participated in the Christmas music program.

The Chorus and Band presented their programs at local elementary schools.

POSSUM QUEEN CONTEST

First Runner-up
"Gretchin" Grantham

Possum Queen — "Thomasina" Dorsey

Second Runner-up
"Geraldine" Mauldin

Chorus Line

The Possum Queen Contest was sponsored by the GJHS Annual Staff. The contestants were judged on beauty, poise, and personality. They showed their fabulous dancing talents in a chorus line to "Hey Look Me Over," and modeled their idea of fashion clothes. Then the five finalists were asked such questions as "What do you rate yourself? Why?" The contest was a real success and an enjoyable time for everyone.

To a real sweet person and
a good basketball player. Sleep up the good work and you'll go far in life. Hope you have fun here next year. You're a very good softball player too. Hope you reach all the goals you have set for yourself. Don't forget me next year. Good luck always
